Crisis Stabilization Services

COPE Crisis Stabilization Teams have the primary responsibility of post-disposition follow-up. Services include supportive counseling, urgent access to resources and connecting to community services.

Stabilization Intervention Teams are responsible for meeting with the person once every 24 hours for the first 3 days, as needed, at home or in the community. Teams will assist in connecting the individual with community resources including:

- Assisting with clothing, food, and medical benefits if needed
- Assisting with scheduling appointments and arranging transportation.
- Creating a crisis treatment plan
- Connecting members with their Clinically Responsible Service Provider and outpatient service provider
- Referrals are made by COPE
