

Leap Into Fun with Math and Science

A FREE Parent/Child Event for Fathers and Other Special Male Caregivers

Thursday, February 29, 2024
5:30–7:45 p.m.

Event Schedule

5:15–5:30 Registration

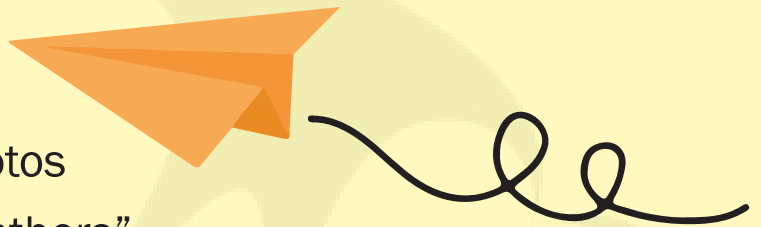

5:30–6:45 Dinner and family photos

5:45–6:15 “The Importance of Fathers”

by Waymond Hayes from Focus: HOPE

6:15–7:45 Make It and Take It FUN math & science activities

- Construction activities (Lego sets, catapults & airplanes)
- Science color experiment
- Make a frame for your family photo
- Math and science games

All activities are designed for children ages 3–8 but other ages are welcome to attend.
All food and activities are available while supplies last.

Registration is recommended/Walk-ins are welcome

www.guidance-center.org/leap

Wayne County Community College District - Downriver Campus

Entrance doors at circle drive under Welcome sign

21000 Northline Rd, Taylor MI

For questions: TGC Early Head Start/Head Start parents contact Kristie Shields at 734-785-7705 x7541.

All other parents contact Jane Reitman at 734-785-7705 x7369.

