INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE RECIPIENT/CLIENT RECIPIENT RIGHTS INVESTIGATION REPORT

This form contains the official program response to your recipient rights complaint.

You should have received this report no later than 30 working days after the recipient rights advisor received your complaint.

If there is some reason for taking more than 30 working days to respond to your complaint, you will receive a preliminary report within 30 days with an explanation of why it is taking longer, and the date the report will be completed.

When you receive this report, you will have 15 working days to decide to accept the findings and/or action plan or to file an appeal. The last date upon which you may file an appeal is noted in the lower left-hand corner of the form.

No action on your part by the indicated date means you have accepted the findings and action plan as a solution to your complaint.

If you want to file an appeal, ask your program rights advisor for a recipient rights appeal form, or you may request one from:

NEW COMPLAINTS

If you accept the remedial action plan in this report but later decide it isn't being put into place as described in this report, you may file a new recipient rights complaint.

The Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs will not discriminate against any individual or group because of race, sex, religion, age, national origin, color, marital status, disability or political beliefs. If you need assistance with reading, writing, hearing, etc., under the Americans with Disabilities Act, you may make your needs known to this agency.
