HUMAN TRAFFICKING
Modern-day slavery and involves the use of force, fraud, or coercion to obtain some type of labor OR commercial sex act.

TYPES OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Sex trafficking is the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, obtaining, patronizing, or soliciting of a person for the purposes of a commercial sex act, in which the commercial sex act is induced by force, fraud, or coercion, or in which the person induced to perform such an act has not attained 18 years of age (22 usc § 7102).

*You don't need (for legal action) to PROVE force, fraud, or coercion if the trafficking victim is under the age of 18.

TYPES OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Labor trafficking is the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of a person for labor or services, through the use of $\underline{\text{force, fraud, or coercion}}$ for the purposes of subjection to $\underline{\text{involuntary}}$ servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery (22 USC § 7102).

*You don't need (for legal action) to PROVE force, fraud, or coercion if the trafficking victim is under the age of 18.

The International Labor Organization Estimates~

$150 BILLION

ndustry Worldwide ~ Forced Labor & Human Trafficking

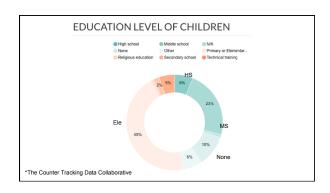

148 Goods, 75 Countries

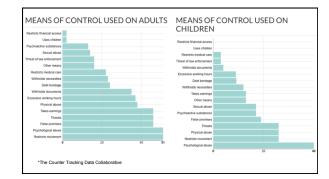

Made by forced or child labor ~ Identified by the U.S. Dept. of Labor

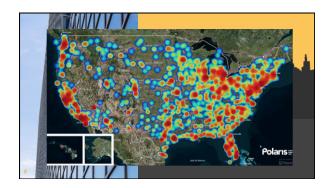

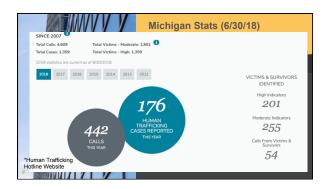

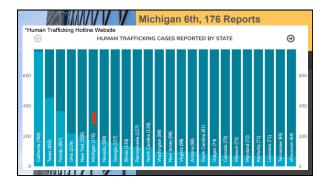

~There is no official estimate of the total number of human trafficking victims in the U.S.

~Polaris estimates that the total number of victims nationally reaches into the hundreds of thousands when estimates of both adults and minors and sex trafficking and labor trafficking are aggregated.

In the U.S. human trafficking is outlawed under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act Victims of human trafficking: Children younger than 18 years induced into commercial sex Adults 18 years or older induced into commercial sex OR labor services through force, fraud, or coercion Under federal law, every minor induced to engage in commercial sex is a victim of human trafficking

Efforts to Combat Human Trafficking

The Michigan legislature has demonstrated advocacy for survivors of human trafficking through the passage of various state laws:

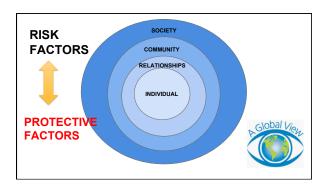

- 2006: A state law was passed that banned human trafficking.
- April 1, 2011: A bill was implemented that allows trafficking victims to seek restitution for the value of the years of life lost in bondage.
- 2014: A legislative package of 21 bills was passed that included safe harbor provisions and increased trafficker accountability.
- 2015: A commission on human trafficking was created within the departments of the Attorney General and Community Health.
- 2017: A bill was signed that allows for the expungement of criminal records of victims of human trafficking.

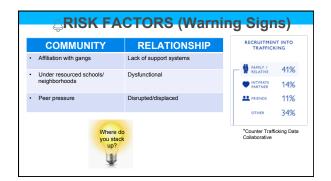

Warning Signs & Identifying Victims of Human Trafficking

How Traffickers Operate

- Traffickers prey on people with little or no social safety net
- Vulnerability Factors
- Use a variety of strategies to trap victims
- The trauma can be so great that many may not identify themselves as victims or ask for help, even in highly public settings

Why teens are at risk
□ Normal developmental factors:□ sexual desires curiosityvulnerability to flattery about their "maturity" or "uniqueness" ☐ Seeking attention/affection
□ Attraction to risk taking□ Low self-esteem
 Social media plays a large role in the trafficking industry
Warning signs of a Victim
Disconnected from family, friends, houses of worship, or community organizations Sudden or dramatic change in behavior or material possessions Unexplained absences (school/work/worship)
 Inability to attend school on a regular basis Chronically runs away from home Makes references to frequent travel to other cities
Makes reference to request travel to other cities Makes reference to sexual situations that are beyond age specific norms
☐ Drug addiction, or living with someone who is addicted
Warning signs of a Victim
 Avoids answering questions, lets others speak for them
Lies about age or identitySeems coached if talking to authority figures
 ☐ Uses trafficking terms (tricked, the life, the game) ☐ Has multiple cell phones or devices
☐ Has multiple hotel keys☐ Child references traveling job opportunities☐
(modeling, singing/dancing, magazine crews)

- Warning signs of a Victim
 Injuries/signs of physical abuse
 Appear Malnourished, showing signs of being denied food, water, sleep, or medical care
 Seems disoriented, unaware of location
 Have few personal possessions. May wear same clothes several days or regardless of the weather
 No identification/documents
 Avoid eye contact
 Fearful of authority figures
 Can't come and go independently
 Ownership marks, brands, or insignia may be present or the person may refuse to discuss a tattoo

Considerations for Faith - Based Communities: What you can do

- Rapport Building-TRUST!
- No judgment-They need help to feel stable, safe, and secure
- If the person is not alone, find a time to speak with them
- Get an interpreter if needed
- Strong trauma bonds are often present, victims may not view intervention as help

If You Suspect Human Trafficking

If you suspect that a person may be a victim of human trafficking, please call the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 888-373-7888 to get help or connect with a service provider in your area.

Non-law enforcement personnel should never attempt to directly confront a suspected trafficker or rescue a suspected victim. Doing so could put both your and the victim's safety at risk. By immediately informing law enforcement of your suspicions, you may be able to safety assist in the recovery of the victim and the dismantling of the trafficking operation.
