KEYWORDS

- Abuse means provider practices that are inconsistent with sound fiscal, business, or medical practices, and result in an unnecessary cost to the Medicare or Medicaid program, or in reimbursement for services that are not medically necessary or that fail to meet professionally recognized standards for health care. It also includes recipient practices that unintentionally result in unnecessary cost to the Medicare/Medicaid program. (42 CFR 455.2). This usually is a lesser offense than fraud (examples include excessive charges, improper billing, or overpayment due to lack of documentation).
- Anti-Kickback refers to Section 1128B(b) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1320a- 7b[b]) which provides criminal penalties for individuals or entities that knowingly and willfully offer, pay, solicit, or receive remuneration in order to induce or reward business payable (or reimbursable) under the Medicaid program or other Federal health care programs. For the purpose of the anti-kickback statute, "remuneration" includes the transfer of anything of value, directly or indirectly, overtly or covertly, in cash or in kind.
- False Claims Act (31 U.S.C. §3729) prohibits knowingly presenting (or causing to be presented) to the federal government a false or fraudulent claim for payment or approval. Additionally, it prohibits knowingly making or using (or causing to be made or used) a false record or statement to get a false or fraudulent claim paid or approved by the federal government, or the state Medicaid program.
- Fraud means an intentional deception or misrepresentation made by a person with the knowledge that the deception could result in some unauthorized benefit to himself or some other person. It includes any act that constitutes fraud under applicable Federal or State law (42 CFR 455.2). Some examples include:
  1. Theft or misappropriation of funds, supplies, property, or other resources;
  2. Forgery or alteration of documents or records (whether financial or operational); and
  3. Falsification of reports to management or external agencies.
- Waste means over utilization of services or other practices that, directly or indirectly, results in unnecessary costs to the health care system, including the Medicare and Medicaid programs. It is not generally considered to be caused by criminally negligent actions, but by the misuse of resources or inefficient practices.
- Whistleblower/Whistleblower Protection means that individuals are ensured, pursuant to applicable federal and state statutes, that they will not be retaliated against, sanctioned, or penalized by the DWIHN for reporting any good faith FWA violations.

All individuals will be ensured Whistleblower Protection pursuant to federal and state law.

Reports of retaliation or retribution will be investigated thoroughly and expeditiously to determine appropriate sanctions, including employment or contractual termination, and/or notification to the appropriate federal or state law enforcement agencies.

A reporting party will not be afforded the protection of Whistleblower Protection if his or her allegation of a violation was knowingly fabricated, knowingly exaggerated, or otherwise distorted to adversely affect another person or to protect the reporting party.

In addition, the DWIHN performs additional monitoring and proactive measures:

- a. Prior to contracting, review all providers and contractors (including their Board members and executives) against the OIG/LEIE and SAM list;
- b. Requiring providers to perform monthly review of provider clinical staff licensing and sanctions; and
- c. Annual provider environmental and clinical documentation reviews.

2. In addition, all DWIHN contracts with providers and/or contractors include general language that require:

- a. Compliance with all DWIHN policies and procedures (as amended) or any appropriate regulatory agency for the detection and prevention of fraud and abuse committed by providers, employees, or agents.
- b. Any payments made to the providers or contractors are derived from federal and state funds and that the provider or contractor shall be held civilly and/or criminally liable, in the event of nonperformance, misrepresentation, fraud, or abuse of services rendered to DWIHN consumers.
